

SYNOPSIS: TOCCATA

Autumn in Tetovo, Macedonia. City which is very polluted. FILIP (17) is a talented student in a High School who's play piano, from very poor society. He has a problem with his lung because of the pollution. He is living with his MOTHER KALINA (40). His FATHER (50) left them and went abroad. Kalina sells flowers at the open market to survive and has no money to allow Filip to enroll in a Music academy. His TEACHER (60) raise his hands to him, and dedicates himself to an untalented STUDENT GIRL (17) in his class, in which Filip also studies. Filip decide to not go in a Music academy and start to work with his mother on a market place, selling a flowers. After ten years, his father appears. He follows them all the time, not knowing how to approach them. He talk with his teacher to help him enroll in a Music academy and he will pay and for a private classes too. Kalina and Filip's father finally meet each other. Through their meeting, it is revealed that this is Philip's father. She doesn't want help from him, but to the end she will decide to take money from his father because of Filip, after his examination by a doctor where leukemia is detected. Filip get in on the audition on Music academy. After the audition, all three go to celebrate together, as a family. He gets sick in the restaurant. Filip dies in Hospital.