

SYNOPSIS: LITTLE THINGS ARE A BIG CHALLENGE

Autumn in Tetovo, Macedonia. PETAR (10) is a child who lives with his FATHER who is HYGIENIST (40) who's every morning he's cleaning the building, to earn for living for him and Petar. Petar is very often with him, and has a small notes where usually write his poem. ANGELA (11) is a girl who's living in this building and very often she is sitting on the stairs and reading a book. On this building live three KIDS: KID ONE (10), KID TWO (11), KID THREE (12), who make fun of him and tease him. In front of the door of the building usually is sitting on her chair one GRANDMOTHER (70) who is wearing a mask and time on time, she spit on the ground. Close to her is one TAXI CAR who is open, no one is inside, only the radio who is talk about situation in Macedonia for COVID-19. Petar wants to make friendship with that kids because they are kids from his school. He goes to them, and his notes fall down. Angela is taking his notes with poems, meantime they rudely reject it. Angela is defend him, many times and they become friends. Angela give to Petar book with fairytales for their friendship telling him that he is very talented, otherwise, Petar write a poem for their friendships. Through story in VOICE OVER we are listening Petar's poems.